

Supplies

I pray that you are all having a rejuvenating summer! I have spent 3 weeks at camp Lutherhaven working at whatever they needed. I have also been working at the ukulele. It's coming along slowly. How are your goals working out? Tomorrow I am off to Chicago to attend a comfort dog conference. We are getting closer to getting our own comfort dog. Can't wait to share him/her with you.

Thinking of all the learning that will happen this year as we use our crayons to color maps, our white boards to do math, and our notebooks for writing. You can put outdoor education at camp on your calendar. We will be going Sept. 6th and 7th. (Cost will be $65.00 for students.) It's Enjoy each day of summer. I hope you are reading some good books to tell me about in August.

Everyone brings to share:
